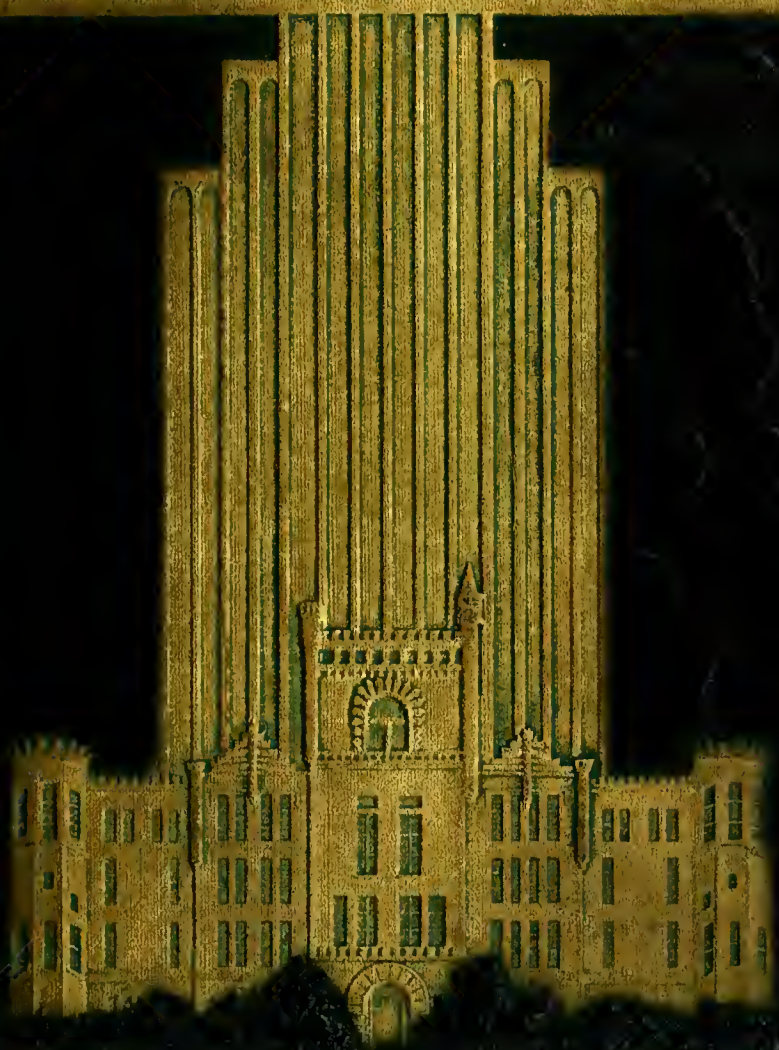
MAROON & WHITE



The 1931 Maroon and White portrays a century of progress. Industrially, Sioux City has advanced rapidly. Likewise, Central High has expanded--from a simple frame structure to the present majestic building, and has been enlarged twice to accommodate the ever increasing number of pupils.

FOREWORD

THE MAROON AND WHITE Annual has been built this year to portray a century of progress, not as to our educational system only, but also to the expanse of our city, its buildings, businesses, residences, and population.

Through the efforts of every member of the staff, material has been selected to represent the past, and through the imagination of the artists, pictures have been drawn to depict that part of the century which is in the future.

With such a foundation, this book has been conceived as a progressive unit in a progressive community. The Annual Board has strived in every way to weave city and school activities together and to bind them into a piece of literature which always will be cherished among the possessions of Central High students.

DEDICATION

to

a member of our faculty, who, through his esteemed friendship, cooperation, and dynamic ability, has advanced the intellectual, social, and athletic bulwarks of our Castle in a progressive channel and has served his school as a true Master, we, the Annual Board of 1931, dedicate this volume of the Maroon and White.

In Memoriam

MR. M. G. CLARK, who was Superintendent of the public schools in Sioux City from 1911 to 1931, was one of the most prominent citizens of the city. His every important interest concerned the welfare and growth of this city, and he was known throughout the United States for the active part he took in national as well as civic affairs.

Superintendent Clark was born in Belleville, N. Y., March 6, 1868. He attended various colleges and universities—where he received degrees of A. B., A. M., and also an honorary L. L. D.

Mr. Clark was superintendent of schools at Greenville, Ill., from 1898 to 1901; at Princenton, Ill., from 1901 to 1906; and at Streator, Ill., from 1906 to 1911. In 1911, he assumed his duties as superintendent of schools here and had been here since then. He was prominent in both state and national educational movements, being chairman of the Iowa state committee of vocational education from 1917 to 1925.

Mr. Clark held several important offices in both state and national educational associations, but probably the greatest honor was about to be bestowed on him at the time of his death—that of being put forward by Iowa superintendents of schools as president of the superintendents' department of the N. E. A. at the meeting of that group in Detroit.

Under Mr. Clark's supervision, the educational interest of Sioux City made great progress. It was he who instigated the erection of the four Junior High Schools and of East High, and the remodeling of Central High. The school system which he put into practice has made Sioux City widely known in the educational world.

But his work did not stop with educational movements only. Those whose chief interest is civic progress received his hearty cooperation, for, in Sioux City, he was ex-president and a member of the Rotary, the Knife and Fork, and the Sociological clubs, and a member of the Professional Men's Club. His most prominent lodge affiliation was with the Masonic order, of which he was a thirty-second degree member.

Along with all his work, Superintendent Clark found time to write several text-books, all of which are now in use in various school districts of the United States.

He died February 5, 1931, and his death was deeply felt in the hearts of all those who knew of him or of his endeavors.

The Woodbury County Court House

The Woodbury County Court House is one of the most imposing pieces of architecture in the United States. The building is a stately structure of Roman brick, with a beautiful color scheme of light brown and varying shades of this color. Above the main entrance is the figure of an American Eagle, which signifies "Liberty". The interior is truly inspiring, with its architectural beauty, and its murals which are true pieces of art. The Court House is modernly equipped throughout, having drinking fountains, elevators, and a complete system of telephones.

Scarcely a week passes that visitors or representatives from other cities do not come to inspect this building, which, so many people have stated, could be an extremely fine "subject" for study.

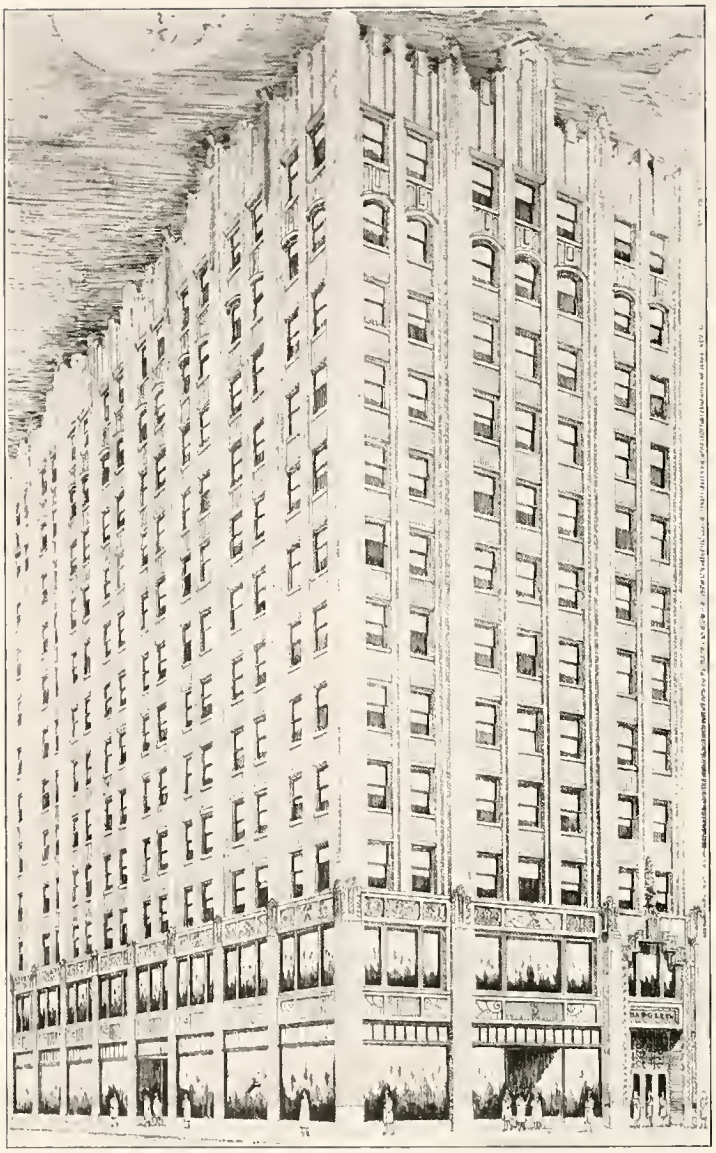
The Warrior Hotel

The latest addition to Sioux City's growing number of large constructions is the beautiful Warrior Hotel. It is located at Sixth and Nebraska Streets, and occupies an entire quarter block. The building itself is ten stories high. In color, it is tan with contrasting lighter tan terra cotta.

The main lobby is extremely decorative as well as useful. Every room in the hotel is elaborately furnished, including those which are used chiefly for entertainments. As to modern conveniences, the hotel is complete in every way; no minor detail has been overlooked.

The Benson Furniture Company

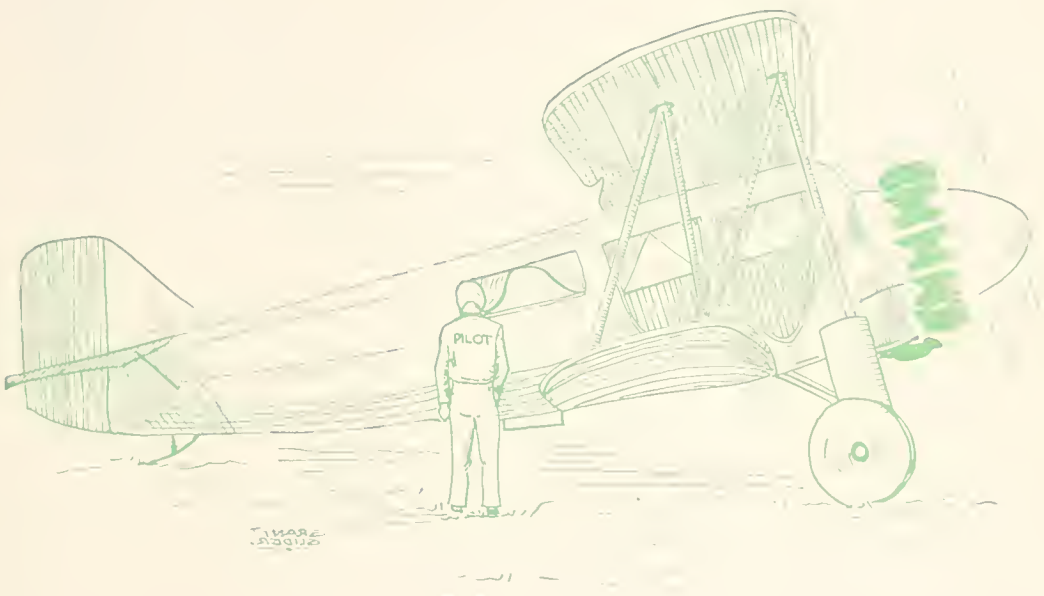
The newest manufacturing building in Sioux City is the Benson Furniture Company. This firm, as do all successful business houses, started out as a small concern—in a fair-sized building, and doing its manufacturing on a comparatively small scale. As the city progressed, so did this company flourish, and its business grew to such an extent as to require a larger, more modern building. The latter, which is represented in the present Benson Furniture Company, is located at 1801 East Fourth Street. This building is five stories in height. It is one of the neatest appearing manufacturing concerns in this city.



The Badgerow Building

The Badgerow Building is an example of a structure erected on a strictly modern American architectural basis. It is principally an office building, and is most conveniently situated at Fourth and Jackson Streets, in the immediate vicinity of the business district. The exterior of the structure is of terra cotta, with the very popular tan as the dominant color. It appears firm and powerful, as do the majority of the American buildings, and it is twelve stories high—the highest building in Sioux City.

CITIZENS OF OUR SCHOOL



EXECUTIVE BODY

L. W. Feik

A. G. Heitman

Administration

Superintendent

Starting out in the Sioux City school system as a teacher of mathematics in Central High School, Mr. Lewis W. Feik made continual advancement until the Board of Education saw fit to make him superintendent of all the public schools of this city. During his seventeen years of service in the educational department, Mr. Feik was principal of Riverview, Emerson, and Smith grade schools, West Junior School, and East High School.

Upon his appointment of superintendent, Mr. Feik assumed his duties in his offices, which are located in the Woodrow Wilson Junior School. His office calls for the responsibility of the twenty-five grade schools, four junior high schools, and two high schools.

Principal

Mr. Heitman has been principal of Central High School for eleven years. His time is fully taken up with tasks in connection with the school. Besides the supervising of the teachers and pupils, all activities are under his advisorship and control. It is he, also, who executes disciplinary measures and confirms six week report cards and poor work cards. Every assembly must be planned by him, and all teachers' meetings are a part of his doings.

H. A. Arnold

Rachel Cook

DEANS

Although Mr. Arnold is referred to as assistant principal, yet his tasks are made up of those familiar to deans. He writes the tardy and absence excuses for the boys. At the end of each semester, every pupil is called in to him for help in plans for the following semester. All new pupils are called to his office for consultation in regard to studies to be taken both in high school and college. Through these little discussions, he learns to know most of the pupils intimately. Mr. Arnold leaves Central this year to become principal of East High.

Miss Cook is the dean of girls at Central. She has charge of all girls who have been either absent or tardy. When a girl wishes work in a private home or in a place of business, Miss Cook advises her as to such, and if possible, secures a desirable position for her. She is adviser of Friendship Club, to which every girl in Central belongs. She has a delightful personality and has proved to be a very successful dean of girls.

Gladys McClanahan

Camille Flint

Registrar

Miss Flint, as registrar of Central High, keeps the record of the daily attendance of every pupil. In addition to this, all permanent records which are kept in the office are under her supervision. She inquires as to the causes of irregular attendance and talks to pupils who are continually tardy. She also assists in preparing report cards. A most important duty is the sending of pupils' credits to specified colleges or other high schools to which pupils may be transferred.

Office Stenographer

Miss McClanahan, who is the office stenographer, has a variety of important duties. She takes dictation from both Mr. Heitman and Mr. Arnold, prepares the out-of-club lists, and also the club eligibility lists. It is she who makes out the bulletins and announcements which are sent to every teacher. Tardy pupils come to her for admittance slips. She assists in sending all "F" report cards to the pupils' homes and attends to the banking and gives all general information. The typing and mimeographing of the examination papers at the end of every semester is another of her duties.

L. B. Martin | Marjorie Rogers | Roy Quinn

PHYSICAL TRAINING

Three semesters of physical training are required of every pupil who enters Central. The large new gymnasium makes it possible to accommodate the necessary number of both boys and girls who take gym.

Central High competes in the three major sports during the year: football, basketball, and track. Coach Lloyd B. Martin has charge of the football team, and under his leadership, the squad invariably participates in a successful season. It is he, too, who makes careful selection in the choice of a track team.

Roy Quinn supervises the boys' daily gymnasium work. In addition to physical exercises, the boys include such sports as boxing, wrestling, basketball, track, football, and volleyball, according to the season. Besides assisting Mr. Martin during the football period, he selects the basketball teams and drills them throughout the season.

The girls are under the instructorship of Miss Marjorie Rogers. For the most part, they devote their time to the playing of volleyball, German bat ball, and basketball. During the latter part of the spring season, basketball teams are chosen and an inter-class tournament is held to determine the champion team of the year.

COMMERCIAL

Every year the commercial teachers strive to make improvements in some or all phases of the business department at Central. At present, there is an advanced system of teaching, and modern equipment is added yearly to keep pace with necessary requirements. After having completed the business course at Central, a pupil is fully prepared to hold a good position, and to duly accomplish all general duties.

Four semesters of shorthand are offered. Three semesters of typewriting may be taken, but Typing 3 consists of a semester of Office Training. Other commercial subjects offered are: Bookkeeping 1 and 2; Higher Accounting, now referred to as Accounting 1 and 2; Business Economics, Salesmanship, Advertising, United States History, Commercial Law, Industrial History, and Commercial Geography.

Rose Greenen | Helen Scott | Edith Phenicie

L. E. Block | Harriet Waechter | K. S. Burton

The Calculator—Burroughs, Comptometer, or Monroe—may be taken instead of advanced bookkeeping, and it is hoped that it may be added to the Office Training course, if the required number of machines are installed.

There is a staff of eleven teachers in the Commercial Department. Miss Bina Mae Traxler has general supervision over the entire group. She was appointed to this office by Mr. M. G. Clark in 1924. Those who teach typing are the Misses Harriet Waechter, Phoebe Carlson, Emma Beck, and Bina Mae Traxler. The latter three also teach Shorthand. Mr. Garnes is the instructor in Commercial Law and Commercial Geography. Mr. Burton teaches Salesmanship, Advertising, and Business Economics. Miss Rose Greenen instructs in Business English. Bookkeeping is taught by Miss Edith Phenicie, Mr. Block, and Miss Helen Scott. Miss Helen McNellis teaches Industrial History and United States History.

ENGLISH

The English Department has a staff of eleven teachers, and every necessary form of English is taken. Seven semesters of this subject are required of every pupil before graduation is possible. Grammar is a factor taken to a certain degree during every semester, but it is the chief course of study in English 3. In English 4, the study of Tennyson's "Idylls of the King", Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar", and Irving's famous "Sketch Book" is the general outline of study for the pupils. Students are required to read some of the famous short stories, and Shakespeare's "Hamlet" in English 5. Oral talks and debates are undertaken during English 6. These students also devote themselves to the study of famous essays and essayists.

At the end of seven semesters, either of two additional phases of English may be taken as electives: namely, American Literature and English Literature.

HISTORY

There are five different phases of History taken in the History Department at Central. These include American and General History. Civics, Economics, and Sociology. Two semesters of American History are required of every pupil in order to graduate.

Two semesters of General History are also offered. Economics Civics, and Sociology are each one semester courses, but they are taken only as electives and may be included in making a major in History. These three subjects are confined to the Seniors and to the pupils in the last half of their Junior year.

In these subjects world problems, social and economic, are studied. Pupils may readily become acquainted with the problems which will confront them in future years, besides learning what has been necessary to build the countries of the world into the great nations that they are today.

INDUSTRIAL

Woodshop

Three years of training in the woodshop are offered at Central. In the beginning a pupil must learn the operation of the various machines. First semester students study glue, shellac, and fillers. They also give a great deal of attention to the various kinds of trees.

During the second semester, students devote their time performing work for the School Board and for themselves.

The third semester deals chiefly with period furniture. The remaining three semesters, each student may do his own individual work.

With modern equipment and new working quarters, this course has proved to be very popular among Central High students.

Printing

Printing may be taken during the entire high school attendance, as three years of this course are offered at Central. The equipment for teaching the subject is unusually complete for a high school. In Printing 1, pupils learn the fundamentals of printing, such as setting type by hand. In Printing 2, they are taught to set up various jobs, and the lock-up for pressing. Printing 3 consists of advanced press work, while Printing 4 deals chiefly with the linotype. From then on, the students work on jobs for the Board of Education. Among other duties, print the weekly high school paper, the Record.

Emil Fisher is in charge of the department ,and he is assisted by Walter Miller.

Wayne Kyle | Mrs. Byrnes | F. Miller | Amanda Rohde

Auto Mechanics

A very popular course has been found in Auto Mechanics. During the first semester, the most important objects studied are the motors, rear axles, carburetors, transmissions, and the subject of driving, traffic rules and regulations are taken into careful consideration.

Second semester students learn additional principles, such as those concerning the ignition, generators, starting motors and trouble shooting. The study of aeronautics is also begun.

During the third and fourth semesters, the boys perform commercial work in the way of overhauling various types of machines.

Fred Miller, who is in charge of the department, is assisted by Wayne Kyle.

Retailing and Trade

One of the most important and useful of the courses offered at Central is that which may be taken in Cooperative Retailing. In this course, pupils are not merely trained to be clerks, but also to hold executive positions. After having completed this course at Central, pupils are prepared to be admitted to the New York Retailing College if they so desire.

Among the various subjects that are taught are: Commercial English, Commercial Geography, Business Relations, Retail Selling, Economic History of United States Textiles, Public Speaking, Commercial Arithmetic, Advertising, Merchandising, Expression, Color and Design, Retail Economics, Mental Hygiene, Trade Journals and Bibliography, Sales Psychology, Sales Demonstration, and Auto

Mechanics. This department is taught by Amanda Rohde, Mrs. Byrnes, Lois Gardiner, and Verl Linch.

Art

The Art Department, under Miss White, is a comparatively recent addition to the various courses offered at Central. Two semesters of this course are offered.

HOME ECONOMICS

The Home Economics Department includes three divisions: Sewing, Cooking, and Home Planning.

Three semesters of Sewing are offered. First semester students devote most of their time to the subject of costume designing. The second semester consists principally of the made-over problem. In the third semester, children's dresses and clothes for themselves are carefully considered.

One may also take three semesters of Cooking. In Cooking 1, breakfasts and luncheons are the main projects. Cooking 2 continues with the luncheon problem, the principles of table service, and nutrition work. Cooking 3 deals with diets and more advanced cooking.

One semester of Home Planning may also be chosen. This is limited to the Senior girls.

Caroline Kriege | Gladys McCord | Dora Baldwin

Mrs. Brandenburg | Margaret Franchere | LaVerne Hoff

LANGUAGE

There are four different languages which are offered in this department. They are French, Spanish, German, and Latin.

During the four semesters of French which are offered, Chardenal's "French Grammar", "Contes Faciles", "L'Abbe Constantin", "La Belle France", and "LeJuif Polonais" are studied.

In the Spanish classes, the students read the book "El Capitain Veneno", by Alarcon. Other books which are studied are "A Trip to South America", "Poco A Poco", and "Composicians Espanola".

German grammar and composition work comprise the first two semesters of the German language. During the last two semesters, students assume the study of "Immerisee", "Germelshausen", "Hoher Als die Kirche", "Der Neffe Als Onkel", and "Das Kalte Herz".

Latin 1 and 2 consist chiefly of grammar and composition work. The story of Caesar is begun in Latin 3 and is finished in Latin 4. The study of Vergil and Cicero are offered alternately as Latin 5 and 6, or 7 and 8.

Elsie Siderius | Loretta Sullivan | Bertha Wellhausen

Edna Thompson G. R. Ray Jane Claypool

MATHEMATICS

Central has a very complete Mathematics Department, for in this type of work pupils may take Plane Geometry 1 and 2, Solid Geometry, Advanced Arithmetic, and Algebra 3 and 4.

One year of Plane Geometry is a requirement for graduation. This is usually taken in the Sophomore year. Algebra 3 and 4 may be taken at any time after Plane Geometry has been completed, but unless Algebra 4 is taken in the Senior year, it will not be accepted as a college entrance credit.

Solid Geometry, Trigonometry, and Advanced Arithmetic are each one semester subjects.

For graduation from Central, unless Mathematics is offered as a Major, it must be offered as a Minor.

Mary Stenteville Bessie Hodge M. L. Littlejohn

H. D. Hissong | Alice Blake | H. W. Baker

SCIENCE

Only one year of science is required for graduation from high school, but six semesters of this study are offered. Two semesters of each of the subjects, Physics, Chemistry, and Biology may be taken.

One semester of each of Botany and Zoology comprise the year of Biology. As in all other science subjects, this course requires a double period each day. This period is divided for recitation and laboratory classes as the teacher suggests.

In Chemistry, the characteristics and compounds of the different elements are the chief objects for study. Pupils also learn the composition of matter, and manufacture of many important drugs.

In Physics, the natural phenomena of every day life, such as Heat, Electricity, Sound, Light, Magnetism, and Energy are thoroughly discussed.

Science is one of the most important subjects concerning every day life, and pupils should grasp the opportunity to take the science courses which Central has to offer.

M. T. Iverson

MUSIC

During the past years, the Music Department at Central under Mr. Iverson, has become more and more prominent, until at the present time it is representative of almost every type of musical activity.

Among the different musical organizations are the Band, Orchestra, Girls' Glee Club, Boys' Glee Club, Acapella Choir, and the Theory classes.

The Band has most of its prominence during the football season. It partakes in all of the pep assemblies and is always present at the games.

The orchestra takes part in all stage presentations that Centralites have to offer. These include the class plays and operas. This year the Music Department chose the "Red Mill" as its opera, and individuals were chosen from each organization to take part. The orchestra played the accompaniments.

The Acapella Choir is the most outstanding choral achievement this department contains. It has given many outside concerts during its short existence.

The Glee Clubs serve as a preparatory course for the choir. However, only a certain number are selected for the higher organization.

A new addition to the music division are the classes taught by Mrs. Wilson. These take the place of the former study periods for those who take gymnasium.

The theory classes, taken with one of the other musical groups, carries one full credit a semester for the combination. The other musical organizations grant only one-half credit each semester.

F. O. Racker

Laura Belt

SPEECH

The various divisions of the Speech Department have proved to be popular courses with the students. To be able to speak fluently is a very beneficial factor and pupils are learning to realize this fact more and more.

The three important divisions are Public Speaking, Debating, and Expression.

In Public Speaking, the fundamentals of a good spech are carefully considered. These include facts concerning both the manner of delivery and subject matter. In these classes, each pupil is required to give different types of speeches.

The Debate teams have come into great prominence as a result of their eloquent speaking. They have passed almost an entire undefeated season, being defeated only at Fort Dodge in the district contest. However, they split honors with Sioux Falls in an out-of-state contest.

In the Expression classes, the main diversion is the study of plays. These plays are often given in general assemblies, and others are put on in their regular classes. Dialect is given a great amount of consideration, and pupils also recite narrative readings. Miss Belt, who instructs this course, also directs the Senior Class plays.

Mary Moser

Irene Engle

NORMAL TRAINING

Pupils who take the Normal Training course, which covers a period of two years, are qualified to receive a teachers' certificate in the rural schools, provided they pass the state examinations. In their study, the students become acquainted with rural life. At different intervals during the course, they visit the grade schools in the city and various rural schools in near-by communities. They practice teaching on their fellow class mates.

The main subjects which help comprise this course are: Methods 1, Methods 2, Normal Music, and Pedagogy.

LIBRARY

This year, Miss Engle has had to employ more helpers in the library than ever before as a result of the increasing amount of work. The helpers are, as a rule, chosen from a group of those who wish to prepare themselves as librarians for a profession.

A new supply of books is received annually, so the library is kept up-to-date in all respects. The school library is maintained chiefly for reference purposes rather than for the recreational aim, although the latter objective exists to some extent. However, every type of book may be obtained—instructive and purely amusing. Thus, the library is able to meet the necessary demands of students in all manner of work.

Martin Sullivan Quinn

Lloyd B. Martin came to the Castle on the Hill in 1919 from Grinnell. Since that time he has developed many outstanding teams, among which this year's team rates high. At present he is Director of Athletics and head football and track coach. We all need to express our appreciation for his efforts and we sincerely hope that his future teams shall be as successful as the preceding Maroon and White outfits have been.

Coach Quinn came to Central three years ago from La Crosse Normal where he excelled in football, basketball, and baseball. He is the boys' Physical Training Director and also assistant football and basketball coach. Recently he has been appointed head basketball coach.

Joe Sullivan has had the honor of being captain of one of the most successful football teams that Coach Martin has ever developed here. He is regarded as one of the best tackles in the state by various sport writers because of his strong offensive and defensive game.

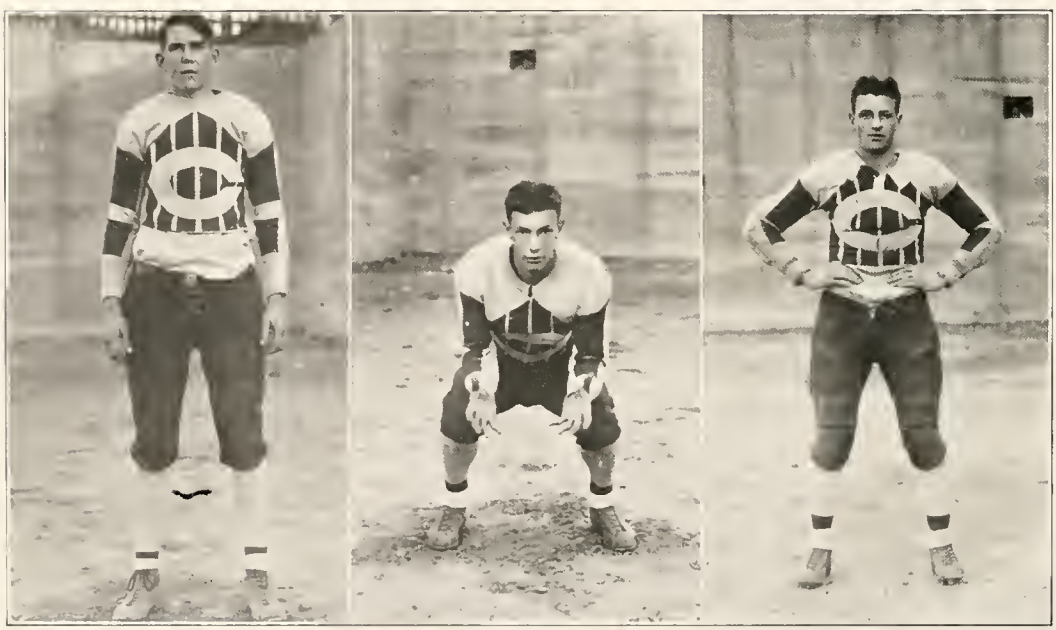
PREVIEW OF SEASON

The opening of the 1930 football season showed seventy-five potential candidates out to uphold the honor of the Little Maroons on the gridiron. Coach Martin had only four letter-men back around which to build a team. These were Captain Sullivan, a tackle: Epstein, an end: Hartin, a guard: and Bernard, whom Coach Martin intended to use as a triple-threat man. However, many men were back from our 1929 undefeated second tean. The squad developed rapidly and the chances for an unusual team were bright.

Central vs. LeMars

CENTRAL 21—LE MARS 21

The first game of the season, played against the LeMars High School "Bulldogs", did not satisfy the football taste of the Centralites. LeMars put up an unexpected battle and took advantage of every possible break. They intercepted two passes for touchdowns and made their other touchdown by recovering a Central fumble in their own territory. The Little Maroons outplayed them in most every phase of the game, by making nineteen first downs to their three, by gaining eight times as much yardage, and by completing a greater percentage of forward passes. The game was marked by the absence of penalties which are generally common in early season games.



Benjamin Baumsten Bernard

Central vs. Fort Dodge

CENTRAL 0—FORT DODGE 18

The Little Maroons from Central fell before the strong Fort Dodge eleven in the first nocturnal contest in the history of the school. Although the superiority of the Dodgers was evident at all times, they were especially impressive in the first half when they swept through the Central team for three touchdowns, which were made on passes.

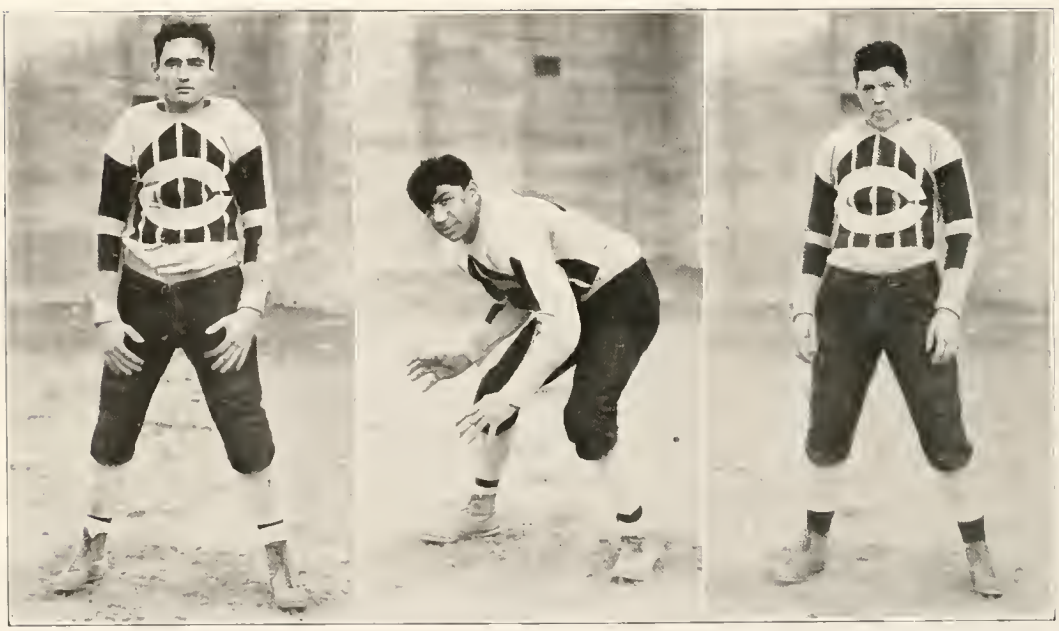
Central's only serious threat to score came at the opening of the second half when Wilkinson returned the kickoff 60 yards to the 30-yard line. Bernard, Mattox, and Ewald smashed the ball to the 5-yard line where the Dodger's line rallied and forced Central to lose the ball. The Litle Maroons opened a passing attack that lasted for the rest of the game.

Crawford | Ewald | Epstein

Central vs. Council Bluffs

CENTRAL 13—T. J. COUNCIL BLUFFS 0

Central showed much improvement in their pass defense when they downed the Tee-Jays of Council Bluffs, 13-0, in the first victory of the season for the Little Maroons. The Tee-Jays attempted twenty-four passes and completed three, while Central presented a varied attack that included everything in football books. Central backs fumbled much during the game. Many of these were recovered by the Council Bluffs men who were not able to take advantage of these breaks. Work of the Central linesmen, who came forth with a good showing enabling their brilliant mates in the backfield to do what they pleased, was the attraction of the game.



Hartin Goldberg Hensen

Central vs. Cedar Rapids

CENTRAL 6—GRANT HIGH, CEDAR RAPIDS 0

How completely the Central team outclassed the championship Grant High eleven is not expressed in the score. The Central pass defensive functioned perfectly, but Central lost nine times as much yardage as Cedar Rapids from penalties.

At the beginning of the third quarter Central started a 75-yard rush only to lose the ball on the 4-inch marker where the Cedar Rapids line held it. Central spent the remaining time in protecting their six-point lead.

Neal

McDonough

Mount

Central vs. Hawarden

CENTRAL 6—HAWARDEN 0

An overconfident and pepless Central team was barely able to squeeze out a touchdown over the heretofore undefeated Hawarden eleven in our second road trip of the year. During the first quarter the strong Hawarden outfit completely outclassed the Little Maroons.

A rejuvenated Central team took the field in the second half. After placing the ball on the Hawarden 5-yard line, by means of a 60-yard offensive, Wilkinson swept around left end for our lone marker. Central repulsed several Hawarden aerial attacks, and was in possession of the ball on the opponents' 10-yard line as the whistle blew.

Roach Scott Newton

Central vs. East

CENTRAL 19—EAST 7

For the fifth time in succession the Little Maroons of Central overcame the much-overrated Orange and Black eleven to cinch the city title and to take possession of a large trophy given for winning the title three years in succession. The Martinmen made 369 yards through the so-called impregnable Morningside line, while East had to be contented with a mere 97 yards, 64 of which were made by Cairy on a long run. Central made nineteen first downs to East High's two. Central tried five passes and completed two, while the highly praised aerial attack of East did not fare so well. They tried ten, completed one, and had three intercepted.

On th last play of the game Wilkinson had a clear field for a touchdown but the crowd surged out on the field and forced him to reverse his field into the arms of an Orange and Black man.

Central vs. East

Central vs. Council Bluffs

CENTRAL 21—COUNCIL BLUFFS 6

In the last road trip of the year, the Central eleven came out victorious over the Abraham Lincoln crew of Council Bluffs. The Martinmen left the field at the half with the score 6-0, against them. They were outplayed the first half by a wide margin. The team came back and completely reversed the situation during the last half. Late in the game, Central received possession of the ball on the 40-yard line. A run by Bernard and three smashes by McDonough put the ball over, McDonough scoring. Bernard's placekicks after the last two touchdowns were successful.

Stone Tamminga Soelberg

Central vs. Sioux Falls

CENTRAL 12—SIOUX FALLS 0

In the last game of the season, the Maroon and White gridders of Coach Martin defeated the previously unbeaten Washington High eleven of Sioux Falls, 12-0. This was the climax to Central's third annual Homecoming celebration. Central's first touchdown came early in the first period when the team started an effective drive for 55 yards that ended with "Whity" Ewald driving over for the marker.

This game was the last that will see the following players wearing the Maroon and White of Central: Captain Sullivan, Benjamin, Mount, Sutherland, Hartin, and Scott on the line, and Wilkinson, Crawford, and Tamminga in the backfield.

SUMMARY

Central	6	So. Sioux City	0	Central	6	East	0
Central	0	Wolverines	15	Central	13	All-Stars	0
Central	6	LeMars	26	Central	7	So. Sioux City	0

CENTRAL 6—SOUTH SIOUX CITY 0

The second team opened the season by defeating South Sioux City 6 to 0. This was brought about by strong line plunges mixed with varied passing attack.

CENTRAL 0—WOLVERINES 15

The next encounter for the second team took place with a team named Wolverines, who were a group of former Central athletes. Being heavily outweighed, the seconds were not expected to mak an impressive showing.

Central vs. South Sioux

Central vs. LeMars

CENTRAL 6—LE MARS 26

LeMars claimed to have settled the question of football supremacy over Central, when their reserves downed our second team 26 to 6. Our scrubs were outplayed by the heavier Bulldogs throughout the game; however, they made several strong advances toward the LeMars goal.

CENTRAL 6—EAST 0

In the annual battle for the city championship of the reserve outfits, the Little Maroons from Central came out on the long end of a 6 to 0 count. It was a hard fought battle all the way. Central was especially adept at knocking down Orange and Black passes and in smashing the East forward wall.

Central vs. East

Central vs. South Sioux

CENTRAL 13—ALL STARS 0

In a fierce battle the second team defeated the All-Stars, a sand-lot team and composed of ineligible Central students, 13 to 0. The scrubs played a very exciting game throughout the four quarters. Their second touchdown was made by Loe early in the last quarter, and the final whistle found the ball in possession of the scrubs, deep in enemy territory.

CENTRAL 7—SOUTH SIOUX 0

In their last game of the year, the scrubs started the successful Homecoming celebration by romping over the South Sioux City Seconds for the second time this season. The game was marked by hard fighting and good playing on the part of both teams.

The seconds show much promising material for next year's varsity.

Preview of the 1930-31 Season

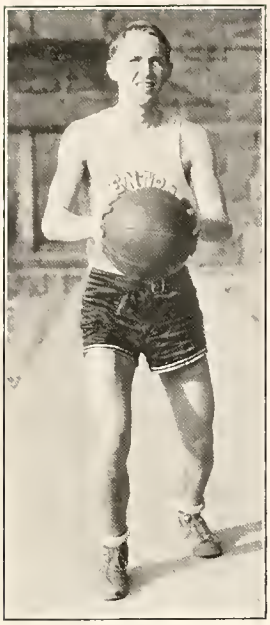
Over one hundred candidates reported to Coach Quinn in answer to his call for basketball material. Captain Wilkinson and Bernard are the only lettermen available. Two non-lettermen from last year's first squad, as well as several second team members are ready for service. Coach Quinn expects to muster two squads of good ability from this material with which he will tackle the 1930-31 season.

CENTRAL 27—SOLDIER 22

Central was forced into an overtime period to win the first game of the season as well as the first game in our new gym and under Coach Quinn, from the strong Soldier quintet. The game was marked by fast, quick breaking which is uncommon in early season games. When the final whistle blew, the score was tied at 21-21. During the overtime period, Soldier was able to bag one point on a free throw, while Wilkinson counted three times from the field to give Central a win.

CENTRAL 8—YANKTON 22

During the Christmas holidays the Little Maroons were forced to take a beating from the Yankton Bucks. Central did not score from the field during the first two quarters. Coach Quinn substituted freely during the second half, hoping to find some "hot shots". However, Yankton kept counting, and the score was 22-8 at the end, in their favor.



Huff

English

CENTRAL 23—WAYNE 26

The inability to "hit the hoop" lost a hard fought battle to Wayne, Nebraska, for the Quinnmen. The game was extremely fast, and the air-tight defense of both teams was apparent nearly all the time. Late in the third quarter, Wayne took the lead and did not relinquish it thereafter. Captain Wilkinson, while not playing his usual uncanny game, set the pace for the rest by scoring eight points during the game.

CENTRAL 14—A. B. OF COUNCIL BLUFFS 16

The Central five lost the third game in a row, when the Abe Lynx of Council Bluffs invaded the local gym and won a close battle by a 16-14 count. Council Bluffs forged ahead and held a 12-3 lead at the half. Central gained two points in the third quarter, and during a fourth quarter rally which brought the crowd to their feet several times, the Little Maroons woke up and were only two points behind at the last whistle.

CENTRAL 25—SPIRIT LAKE 13

The following weekend the Litle Maroons journeyed to Spirit Lake where they defeated the Spirit Lake Indians in a hard battle. The game was fast and during the first quarter each team scored four points, but at the half the Central five had a seven-point yead. During the last half, the Quinnmen scored at leisure, and at the end of the game the score was 25-13 in favor of Central.

CENTRAL 17—MILFORD 21

The next evening the Quinnmen traveled to Milford to play the district champions of last year. The score at the half was 11 to 11. Coach Quinn used the same five throughout the game, although the defense of the Little Maroons was especially weak. Baumsten's accuracy at sinking long shots was easily the highlight of the game, as he sank four from the middle of the floor. The score at the last whistle was 21 to 17 with Milford in the lead.

CENTRAL 15—SIOUX FALLS 19

The Central five dropped a hard fought battle to the Washington High team of Sioux Falls in the Central gym by a 19 to 15 score. The Little Maroons held the edge during the earlier part of the game, with Sioux Falls playing the better ball during the last two periods. The game was fast and neither team did any stalling. The Quinnmen held an 8 to 7 lead at the half. This was the last appearance of Captain Wilkinson in a Central uniform as he graduated at mid-year.

CENTRAL 18—SAC CITY 21

In the first game without the services of Wilkinson, the Little Maroons lost to the Sac City Indians. The game started fast with Central gathering four points. After this break, both teams scored twelve points which allowed the Quinnmen to lead at the half by a 16 to 12 count. The second half was slow with Sac City sinking a great many. This was the first game under the new captain, Dave Bernard.

CENTRAL 20—LE MARS 14

The Quinnmen surprised local sport fans and downed the strong LeMars five, which had previously beaten the East High basketeers. Lassen, Central center, opened the scoring by sinking a free toss. Central led at the half, 11 to 10. The Little Maroons were only able to score two free throws during the third quarter, but rallied and were able to collect seven points during the last canto. LeMars was able to gather only four points during the second half. The score at the end was 20 to 14 in favor of Central.

CENTRAL 19—CHEROKEE 18

The Little Maroons extended their winning streak to two victories by downing the fast Cherokee team. The game started slowly, Cherokee gathered eight points before Bathen sank a free throw to open the scoring for Central. The score at the half was 12 to 2 favoring Cherokee. In a great second half rally the Quinnmen came from behind and at the end of the third canto were trailing by a 14 to 9 count. During the last quarter the Central five recovered themselves completely and sank enough baskets so that the score at the gun was 19 to 18 in favor of Central.

CENTRAL 11—LE MARS 9

The Quinnmen annexed another victory when they defeated the LeMars quintet for the second time of the season. At the end of the first half, LeMars held a 7 to 4 lead. Before three minutes of the third quarter had passed, the Sioux had gathered six points which gave them a lead which they retained until the finish. The score at the final whistle was 11 to 9 with Central holding the edge.

CENTRAL 30—MASON CITY 23

In the fastest game seen on the Central floor this year, the Quinnmen edged out a 30-23 victory over the Mason City five. The Central five held an edge over the visitors during the last three periods, but the Mohawks were superior during the first quarter. During the last quarter, the Quinnmen forged ahead and the final gun found them out ahead. Baumsten's uncanny accuracy in hitting the hoop was the feature of the game.

CENTRAL 26—EAST 27

Again Central was defeated by a small margin in the annual intra-city battle with East. Both teams were evenly matched and the score was extremely close during the last half. East led at the quarter by a 7-2 score. Central outplayed the Orange and Black team in the second period, which ended with East leading 12-8. Early in the last period, the count was again evened at 19 to 19, but East slipped ahead and held a 26-20 advantage with only three minutes left to play. The count was tied at 26-all, but an East man sank a free throw and the game was won by one point.

CENTRAL 38—HAWARDEN 26

In the last game of the regular schedule, the Quinnmen journeyed to Hawarden and overcame the high school five by a 38-26 count. A revised lineup showed the center and forwards of the second team playing stellar ball for the first five. During the last quarter the Hawarden five outplayed the Maroons, and won the quarter by a score of 12-11 for that period. However, the final gun found the Central five leading by the comfortable margin of 38-26.

Tournament

The sectional tournament was held March 5, 6, and 7 in the Central gym. This was the first time in the history of the school that a tournament had been held in the Central building. This was made possible only by the completion of our new gym.

The Quinnmen showed unsuspected power in their first encounter by downing the Hawarden five 53-26. There were no especially outstanding stars, but Baumsten, a guard, collected six field goals and one free throw to lead the scorers.

The next evening the Little Maroons met the East five for the second time during this season. Coach Quinn used members of the second team in the lineup. The score at the end of the first period was 9-4 in favor of East. Quinn then inserted his first team men, and Lassen, Central center, scored five points to tie the score. East slipped ahead and held a 15-11 advantage at the end of the half. The Maroons were able to gather only two points during the last half, leaving the final score 22-13 in favor of East.

Since there were so many outstanding sophomores and juniors in this year's competition, a very successful season is expected in the forthcoming year.

CENTRAL 25—JUNIOR C 26

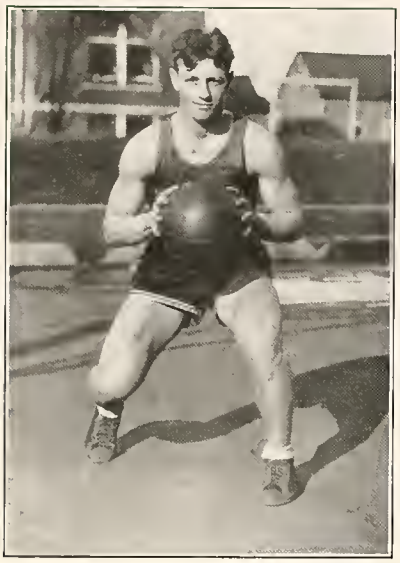
In the first game of the season, the Seconds were defeated by the fast Junior C five. Coach Quinn had divided the second squad into the reserves, and a team composed of first semester men, with the result that the latter proved superior.

CENTRAL 18—LE MARS 15

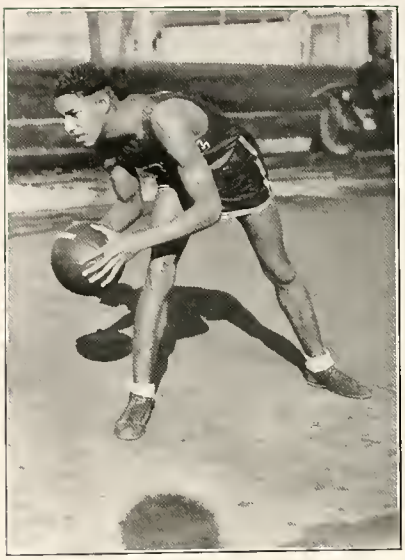
In the first trip of the year the Seconds defeated the LeMars scrubs by a three-point margin. Coach Quinn played his Junior C five the first and third quarters, and the reserves the second and fourth quarters.

CENTRAL 14—A. Z. A. 41

The scrubs were easily taken into camp by the classy A. Z. A. outfit. The A. Z. A. five was composed of former Centralites led by Max Turchen. The seconds started strong but were easily overcome by the more experienced tam.



Captain Bernard



Captain Wilkinson

CENTRAL 20—LE MARS 10

For the second time during the season, the seconds defeated the LeMars scrubs, this time by a ten-point margin. Chapman and Huff, Central forwards, distinguished themselves by their exceptional floorwork.

CENTRAL 36—LEOPARDS 11

The seconds added another victory to their list by smothering the heretofore undefeated Leopard five by a 36-11 score. The seconds led 19-5 at the half. Chapman, Central forward, was the outstanding player on the floor.

CENTRAL 41—EAST 23

In the preliminary to the first team game the second team won the city championship in that division. The Central team outclassed the East reserves even more than the score indicates. The score at the half was 19-10 in favor of the Quinnmen. Chapman and Huff, Central forwards, scored twenty-nine points between them and were easily the stars of the game.

CENTRAL 25—HAWARDEN 17

The Central seconds closed a successful season, having lost no inter-school games, by beating the Hawarden seconds by a 25-17 score. The score was extremely close all during the fray, and at the end the score was tied at 17-all. During the overtime period, the Maroon guards sank several long shots and the final score was 25-17 with Central in the lead.

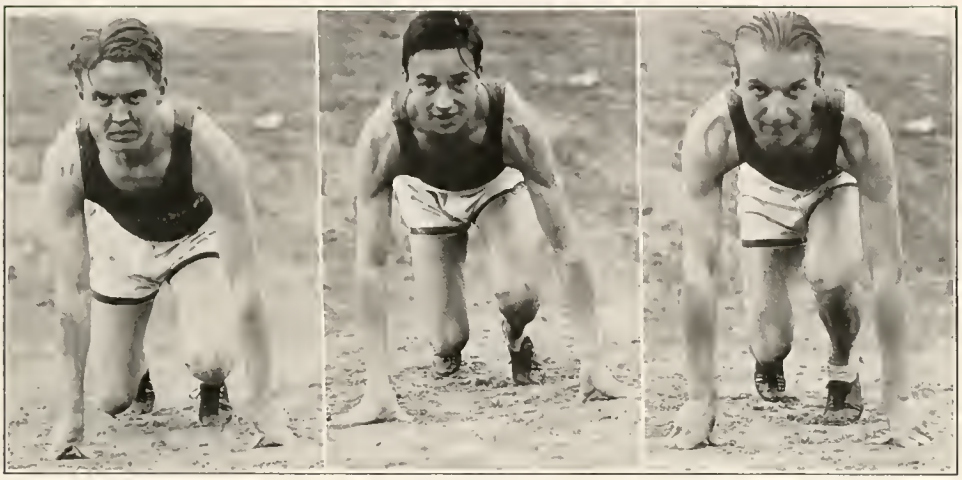
PREVIEW

When Coach Martin issued a call for track candidates about thirty-five aspirants turned out. However, only three lettermen returned. They are Captain Lamoureaux, a dash man; Nickle, a distance runner: and Baumsten, who specializes in the javelin throw. Neal stood out among the new men as a high-jumper, pole-vaulter, and hurdler.



Nickle Captain Lamoureaux Huber

CARROLL RELAYS

The first track competition of the year took place at Carroll on April 18. Thirty of the best teams in the western part of the state were entered. Coach Martin, handicapped by only three weeks of practice, developed a squad which showed their heels to the rest of the field, and took first place in the meet.

The fifteen Maroons entered won three firsts, two seconds, and one third.

Captain Lamoureaux was not hard pressed in winning the 100-yard dash. His time was 10:3. He also ran as an anchor man on the half-mile relay team that finished first in 1:40.5. Other members of the team were Huber, Ewald, and Newton. Neal won the high jump at 5 feet, 6½ inches.

Baumsten won second in the javelin throw, missing first place by only 14 inches. The mile relay, which was leading most of the time, dropped the baton, thereby losing several seconds. They were forced to be content with second place in this event.

Abe Epstein placed third in the shot put, and the two-mile relay team failed to place.

Ewald Keating Newton

DRAKE RELAYS

Coach Martin took five Maroon and White scanty-clads to Des Moines to participate in the Drake Relays, nationally known regetta. The Central half-mile relay team placed second in their heat of the preliminaries but failed by two-tenths of a second to qualify for the finals.

DAKOTA RELAYS

On May 1 and 2 the Little Maroons went to the Dakota Relays at Sioux Falls where they entered five events.

Captain Lamoureaux won his heat of the preliminaries in the 100-yard dash in 10:3. The two-mile relay team and the mile quartet both placed fourth in their respective events.

EAST-CENTRAL MEET

The Little Maroon tracksters won the city track title again this year by the score of 72⅔ to 54⅓. East's mile relay team broke the only record, stepping that distance in 3:47.7. East won only four of the fifteen events. Neal, Central Soph, was high point man, winning four events to gather 20 points. Epstein and Captain Lamoureaux also turned in good performances, collecting 10 and 11¼ points, respectively. The Central half-mile relay team composed of Huber, Newton, Ewald, and Lamoureaux won first place.

MILE RELAY TEAM

H. Baumsten Epstein Neal

CHEROKEE MEET

The Little Maroons easily won the district meet at Cherokee. Competition was keen, as nine records were broken. Central gathered 39 points, with Captain Lamoureaux collecting 16¼ points. He won both dash events and the broad jump, as well as anchoring the Central half-mile relay team which placed first. Other Martinmen who showed up well were Huber, Ewald, and Newton in the quarter; Neal in the broad jump, high jump, high and low hurdles; Jepson and Baumsten in the javelin; Bernard in the pole vault; Epstein in the weights; Chapman in the hurdles; and Wilcox and Mathewson in the distance runs.

STATE FINALS

Captain Lamoureaux, Newton, Ewald, Huber, and Neal accompanied Coach Martin to Ames for the finals. Only the best athletes in the state were entered and the Martinmen made a good showing.

Tennis

The tennis championship of the school in inter-club competition was won by the Elites. Second place went to the Civics, and the Chrestos claimed third. The representatives for the Elites were Bob Conner and George Giesler, two of the outstanding players in this locality. They went through the doubles undefeated, and in the singles Conner won from the Civics representative and Giesler from the Chresto racket-weilder.

The Kee-Y's were represented by Carl Olsen, Carl Gleysteen, Bill King, and Bob Warren. Marvin Klass, Harry Zifkin, and Wayne Pecaut played for the Chrestos.

This was the first competition that the results counted toward winning the Hoberg Trophy. This tennis tournament was successful, and as a result, it will be continued as an intramural sport.

CIVICS TEAM

Don Pendleton Johnny Lawson Carl Gleysteen

Golf

The inter-club competition in the golf division was won by the Civics, with the Chrestos taking second place. The Civics team, composed of Carl Gleysteen and Don Pendleton, went through the tournament undefeated in both divisions, twosomes and foursomes. Vernord Johnson and Clyde Onstot played for the Chrestos. The Elites were represented by Bob McClintock and Don Hatfield.

The Civics team was coached by Johnny Lawson, who is considered the cream of high school golfers because of having won the Iowa High School championship in a tournament held at Des Moines under the auspices of the State High School Athletic Association. In addition to this title he has won numerous amateur tournaments in this locality, and has placed high in the state tournament for men. He has held the Morningside Country Club championship and is the present champion of Sioux City Boat Club. He was runner-up in the city meet last summer. Johnny graduated with the mid-year class of 1931.

CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

Wall, Loros, Green, Manley, Stolze, Hennessy

Gym Class Tournament

Coach Quinn started a new type of intramural sport during the last year. It was an inter-squad tournament of the gym classes to decide the basketball championship of various teams. The tournament was the largest ever held in Central High, and was run off with a championship and a consolation flight. Thirty-one teams participated in sixty-three games. In all, 438 boys played in the tournament. It was won by a squad in Gym Two, first period class. The team was composed of Manley, Green, Hennessy, Wall, and Stolz, all of whom show ability for the school team.

Mr. Quinn plans to develop this branch of intramural sport more in the spring. He is forming plans for a baseball tournament, a golf meet, and a track meet. All of these will be between members of the various gym classes.

ALL-STAR TEAM

Malloy, Baumsten, English, Newton, Scott

Inter-Class Basketball Tournament

The annual inter-class tournament was held on November 25 and 26, and December 2, with no practice beforehand. The first game was a super-defensive battle between the Seniors and the Sophs. The Seniors proved superior by winning 9 to 6. In the second game the Sophomores beat the Jnniors 12 to 11. In the last game of the series, the Seniors' defense weakened and the Juniors won by an 18-12 count. Malloy, junior forward, scored thirteen points in this game. As a result of the tournament, all the classes were put in a three-way tie for the championship.

In the second team division, the Juniors won by beating the Sophs 20-19, and then by taking the Senior scrubs 19-7. The Sophs reserves beat the Seniors 20-8 to cinch second place in the division.

After the tournament, the coaches picked the following all-star teams: English, a rangy Soph, was placed at center; Newton, Malloy, and Baumsten, of the Juniors, were placed at the forward and guard posts: while Scott, a Senior, was placed at the other guard post and was named captain of this mythical quintet.

Inter-Club Basketball

The championship among the Boys' Literary Societies in the basketball division went to the Chrestos. The first game of the round robin series found the Chrestos edging out a win over the Civics. The next evening, the Chrestos scored another win. This time the Elites were the victims. Both games necessitated overtime periods. In the final game the Civics five beat the Elites to win second place.

Class Track Meet

The Seniors, favorites to win the meets, started out with a big lead, but the Juniors collected 68⅝ points, which gave them the meet. The Seniors were second with 64½ points and the Sophs third with 23⅜. Neal, Sophomore, was high point man with 16 points. Three school records were broken and one was tied.

Epstein put the shot 39 feet 2 inches, and he heaved the discus 102 feet 1 inch to a new record. Baumsten hurled the javelin 141 feet. Neal went 5 feet 4 inches in the high jump, and Bernard vaulted 10 feet 2 inches to win the pole vault. Lamoureaux broad jumped 20 feet 4 inches. Huber won the quarter-mile; Wilcox, both the half-mile and mile. The Juniors won the half-mile relay in 1:41.3. The remaining summary is as follows:

100-yard Dash—First, Lamoureaux, Senior; second, Neal, Sophomore; third, Bernard, Junior. Time, 10:6. (Equaled old record.)

220-yard Dash—First, Lamoureaux, Senior; second, Huber, Senior; third, Newton, Senior. Time, 23:4. (New record.)

High Hurdles—First, Neal, Sophomore; second, Chapman, Senior; third, Baumsten, Junior. Time, 15:8. (New record.)

After studying the rules and fundamentals of girls' basketball, the Physical Training 2's had a tournament of their own. There was a small contest held in each class and the class championship team was eligible to compete with the other classes. The above team won the school championship by defeating the Physical Training 3 championship team.

Miss Rogers took charge of all girls' athletics. This is her second year at Central and she has brought girls' athletics up to a high standard. She was prominent in athletics during her school career.

The Physical Training 3 classes had the same type of tournament as did the Physical Training 2's. There was a tournament held in each class also. The above team was expected to win the school championship because they had more experience than the other teams. However, they lost to the team pictured on the opposite page. Miss Rogers' plans could not be carried out fully as the gym was not available until after the first of March. This handicapped her program somewhat.

Championship Volley Ball Team

The Girls' Volley Ball Tournament was held under the direction of Miss Rogers, the instructor of girls' athletics. The tournament took place during the fall semester. A team was chosen from each class, and the process of elimination showed that the winning team was from the Physical Training 3 division. It was expected that a Gym 2 or 3 team would win because they have had more time to become proficient in the game. It is an honor for any girl to be a member of the winning team. This is one of the few ways in which a girl may take part in athletics at Central. This team would represent the Castle on the Hill if there were inter-school competition in girls' athletics. Volley ball is fast becoming a popular sport among the girls, and probably more will play next year.

WHO'S WHO

West Panos Pill Winter

Representative Sophomores

KATHERINE WEST

Katherine may well be placed before others as an example of high quality and character. Although she has been a student at Central for only a little more than a year, she has already proven to her teachers and friends that she is fully capable of leadership. She was a member of Inner Circle, and is also a member of the Philomathian Literary Society. Because of her scholastic rating, her name invariably appears on the honor roll.

THEODORE PANOS

Theodore's record, since his entrance to Central High, has consisted of only the highest standards. Each six weeks, when the honor roll list is published in the Record, one is sure to find Ted's name there. He was recently honored with membership in the Chrestomathian Literary Society. He has already displayed signs of leadership and during the next two years we are sure that he will attain a high rung in the ladder of success.

GISELLA PILL

Gisella is a comparatively new student at Central, yet she has already made herself known to the majority of the students. Her specialization is in music. Almost immediately after her arrival at Central, she became a member of the orchestra. When the time came to select representatives in the local music contest, she was chosen as 'cello soloist. Since that time, she has won first place in both the district and sub-district contests.

ARTHUR WINTERS

"Art" is another member of the Sophomore class who has made a good beginning in his high school activity. He tried out for football and was accepted on the second team, which is quite an achievement. He recently became a member of the Elite Literary Society. "Art" is the kind of chap whom everyone likes and holds in esteem, and big things are expected of him during the next two years of his attendance at Central.

Authier Ammann Littlejohn Bereskin

Representative Juniors

LEIGHTON AUTHIER

Although Leighton has still another year at Central, he has already achieved a very enviable record. He was extremely active in the Speech Department, being a member of the inter-scholastic debate squad and taking part in th extemporaneous contest at Central. He is an active member of the Chrestomathian Literary Society, and has served as President of the French Club. His grades have always been of the best, and he fully deserves honorable mention.

MARGARET AMMANN

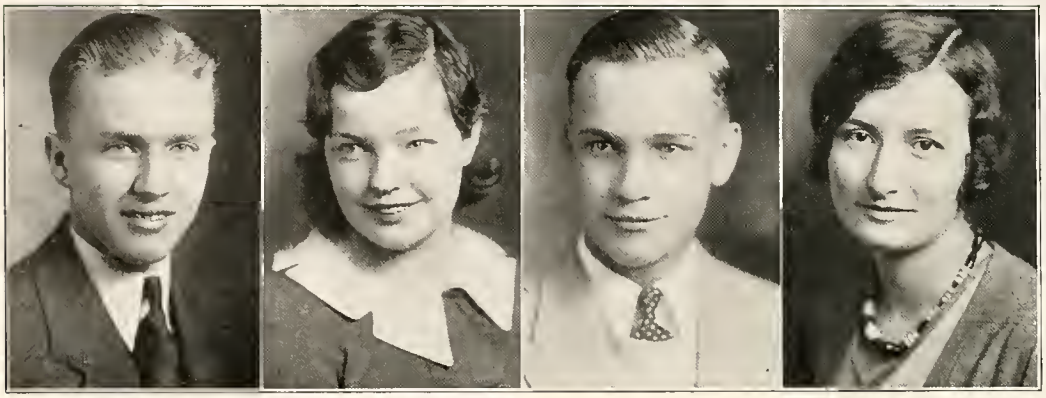
Margaret, whose charming personality has won a great many friends for her, has been selected as one of the most outstanding Juniors. She has been a member of the Record Board for a number of semesters, and has also been active in the Philomathian Literary Society. She was a willing and consistent worker, and her name has continually appeared on the honor roll. With this excellent beginning, Margaret will become a fine leader among the future Seniors of Central, we are confident.

CHARLES LITTLEJOHN

Another well-known Junior is Charles Littlejohn. Most of Charles' activity has been centered around music. He was a member of the orchestra and served as concert master in that capacity. He has represented Central High in various music contests as violin soloist, and has brought back many honors. He is a member of the Chrestomathian Literary Society.

SULAMITH BERESKIN

Sulamith is chosen as a representative for the Juniors because of her excellent scholastic standing and many achievements. She has served on the Record Board since her first eligibility. Starting out as a reporter, she later became proofs editor, and then copy editor. Her scholastic rating has consisted only of the highest honors as she has kept her grades at the top.



Kline Mulholland Blair Graves

Representative Seniors

ROY KLINE

Roy has been chosen one of the most popular Senior boys, and he well deserves this honor. Among the many offices which he has possessed are President and Secretary of the Elite Literary Society, President of the Honor Society, President, Vice President, and Secretary of the Glider Club. He was also a member of the cast in the June Class play.

MARY LORRAINE MULHOLLAND

Mary Lorraine was one of the most well known and best liked individuals at Central. This past semester, she edited the Record, with which every Centralite is well acquainted. She formerly served as copy editor. Other offices which she has held are Secretary of the Honor Society, President and Treasurer of Quill and Scroll. She was also a member of the Philomathian Literary Society, French Club, and Choir.

KEITH BLAIR

Keith was one of the most likable chaps at Central. He achieved many honors, took part in many activities, and still kept up a praise-worthy scholastic standing. He took part in both basketball and football, was a member of the Honor Society and the Castle Commercial Club. He served as Mid-year Class president, and treasurer of the Chrestomathian Literary Society. Keith also had the male lead in the Mid-year Class play.

GLADYS GRAVES

Gladys has distinguished herself a great deal in speech work. She was the only girl on the debate squad, and won first honors in the extemporaneous contest which took place at Central. She was a member of the Hesperian Literary Society and the Honor Society. Everyone with whom Gladys came in contact liked and respected her. Great things are expected of her in the future.

Serrill Klass Graves Marsh

Leading Scholars

JEAN SERRILL

Jean, with her sunny disposition, has gone through high school with flying colors, collecting hosts of friends and many high honors. She served as President of the Honor Society, President of the Hesperian Literary Society, and Class Vice President. In addition to her great amount of outside activity, she found time to keep her grades to such a height as to have the highest average among the girls of the 1931 Mid-year graduating class.

MARVIN KLASS

Marvin is one of the most exceptional students of Central. He was a member of the inter-scholastic debate squad for two years. Both the orchestra and band claimed his membership, and in this capacity, he was chosen to represent Central as a clarinet soloist entry in various music contests. Even with so many outside activities, he was able to keep up such a high scholastic standing as to have the highest average of the boys in the June graduating class.

GLADYS GRAVES

Much has already been said about Gladys, but she fully deserves all the credit that comes her way—and more. All the while she attended high school, she achieved remarkable grades in every one of her studies. With her quiet and reserved nature, she carried the aspect of the brightest girl of her class, and this she has proven. Her marks have been averaged as the highest in the June graduating class.

MORRIS MARSH

Morris Marsh was graduated from Central, in the 1931 Mid-year class, with the highest scholastic average among the boys. He excelled principally in history, and was awarded an American History medal because of his unusual ability along this line. He was a member of the Castle Commercial Club.

Mr. Racker, Adviser

At the end of the second semester of every year, try-outs are held for the Annual Board. This try-out is in the form of a written paper which takes in every phase of work that must be met by each individual who may become a member of the staff.

The board consists of an editor-in-chief, assistant editor, business manager, associate editor, literary editor, photography editor, photography assistants, sports editor, artists, advertising solicitors, and typists.

The editor-in-chief holds a very important and responsible position. She must see that every person is dutifully engaged, besides planning the entire book and preparing the dummy for both herself and the printer. This year Louise Orr was chosen for this honor.

The assistant editor aids the editor and does all proof-reading, while the associate editor helps any member who needs assistance. The business manager transacts all business, including the handling of money that either comes in or goes out. The literary editor writes all articles, excluding sports, prepares the material which comes after the name of every senior. The sports editor prepares the write-ups for all games and athletic tournaments. The photography editor and her assistants see that all necessary pictures are taken and prepared for the engravers. The artists, of course, make all drawings; the typists do all the typewritten material for the Annual. The soliciting of advertisements from various concerns aids in the financing of the book.

The entire book requires cooperation from every member, and in order to succeed in this, each individual must be willing to work, and work hard.

Record Board

Mr. Fisher, Adviser

The Record, which is the Central High School Paper, is published weekly. For many years, it has been granted high standing in the jonrnalistic field. Among the honors the Record has received, was the first place in the Iowa State Press Association contest at Grinnell, and as a further achievement, it received All-American rating in the National Scholastic Press Association contest.

During the first semester, Dale McFarland edited the paper. Lorraine Mulholland served as copy editor: Kenneth Marsh, sports: Marjorie Palmquist, business manager: Sulamith Bereskin, proofs.

Lorraine Mulholland was chosen editor-in-chief for the second semester: Sulamith Bereskin, copy editor: Kenneth Marsh, sports: Marjorie Palmquist, bnsiness manager: Julia Bereskin, proofs.

The Record has proved to be a very popular source of information and entertainment for the pupils.

The Quill and Scroll is a National Honor Society for High School Journalism. Those who are qualified to become members are students who have served or are serving on the Record staff, the editor and the business manager of the Annual Board.

The members are chosen from those who meet the requirements of this organization. Namely: They must be in the upper third of their class in general scholastic standing. They must have done superior work in some phase of journalism. They must be recommended by the supervisor or by the committee governing publications. They must be approved by the National Secretary-Treasurer.

When a candidate is accepted for membership, he pays two dollars which entitles him to the pin and a year's subscription of the monthly publication of the national organization.

All members consider themselves honored to belong to such a widely known organization.

Debate Squad

This year, the debating squad completed an almost undefeated season. Throughout the year, the question for debate was: "Resolved: That the Chain Store System is Detrimental to the Best Interests of the American Public." The first debate was with Abraham Lincoln High School of Council Bluffs. This was a non-decision debate, as was the second, which was held with Thomas Jefferson High School of Council Bluffs.

Next, the Central arguers exhibited a dual victory over East High School. During the following series of debates, the Central teams defeated Cherokee, Correctionville, Pierson, LeMars, and then Hawarden. The latter victory entitling the Centralites to the championship in District B of the Northwest Iowa League.

In between these main events, the team exhibited several practice debates with the schools from Elk Point, Alcester, Vermillion, and Sioux Falls, respectively.

The team then went to Fort Dodge to compete in the Northwest Iowa District Contest where they were, unfortunately, defeated.

The Central affirmative team was composed of Gladys Graves, Leighton Authier, Loyal Kier, and Max Maron. Arnold Baron and Marvin Klass comprised the negative team.

In all, thirty-eight debates were held, twenty-four of which were decision contests. Twenty-one of these decision contests were victories for Central.

Gladys Graves

Extemporaneous Speaking

This year, the annual extemporaneous contest was held April 13. It followed a series of elimination contests which were necessary because of the great number of speakers competing to represent Central.

In the final contest, the number of speakers was limited to five, and in this tilt, Gladys Graves, the only girl, speaking on "Hard Times", won first honors. This gave her the opportunity of being Centrals' representative at the district meet, held at East High.

There, she spoke on "Research in Industry and Universities". In this tournament, she was, unfortunately, eliminated.

Gladys has distinguished herself a great deal in the Speech Department. She was the only girl on the inter-scholastic debate squad, and the team of which she was a member, was very successful and brought back many honors. Last year, while only a Junior, she was runnerup for the extemporaneous speech title.

The extemporaneous contests are sponsored by the Iowa Patriotic League.

"The Tiger"	? ? ? ?

The action revolves around an isolated country estate called "Mystery Manor", because of the alleged hauntings. Erma Lowrie, a young shop girl, has inherited the estate from her eccentric aunt, and according to the terms of the will, she has to occupy the house for the period of one year. Erma's cousins, Arthur Hale and Oswald Kerins, her Aunt Sophia and Peggy Van Ess, a former girl friend, are all house guests when things begin to happen.

There is a delightful thread of romance, clean and highly amusing comedy, but the mystery element dominates throughout. The Tiger turns out to be the one whom the audience least suspects.

The story concerns Robert Preston, a young millionaire, who believes that to be successful he must "never mix sentiment with business." He is in love with Ann Winston, but she has no use for him, though Vivian Darrell is only too anxious to be kind to Robert. Ann and her friend, Doctor Talley, concoct a scheme to soften Bob's hard outer shell, and manage to convince him that he has taken a deadly poison by mistake and has only twenty-four hours to live. Bob is in despair, but plans to do everything possible in twenty-four hours to atone for the selfish life he has lived. But when the twenty-four hours are up, Bob finds that he keeps on living and that the poison hasn't worked. In the end, Bob has learned how to live and be happy.

Orchestra

M. T. Iverson, Director

Central High's orchestra has developed into a very large organization, and is advancing in instrumentation as well as in playing ability. Rehearsals are held daily, during the first half of first period. However, the full orchestra practice alternates with the string section, of which the latter works out numbers especially arranged for string instruments such as Adagio from Toccato, C Major, by Bach.

The full orchestra is comprised of forty-seven instruments. These are: 2 flutes, 2 oboes, 4 clarinets, 1 bassoon, 1 French horn, 4 trumpets, 2 trombones, 1 tympani, 12 first violins, 12 second violins, 2 violas, 2 cellos, and 2 basses. Charles Littlejohn is concert master.

During the first semester, the orchestra devotes its time to the preparation of music for the accompaniment of the opera. In the spring, they combine with East Highs' orchestra in presenting the annual Spring Festival. For both class plays, the orchestra offers various selections. They, also, play the processional and recessional marches for class commencement exercises.

Band

M. T. Iverson, Director

The band is the most popular musical group with the entire student body. The greater part of its activity takes place during the football season, as it plays for the pep assemblies, and is present at every game. It heads all pep parades Central has, and marches over the football field in various formations to the tune of popular marches for the entertainment of the football spectators.

Each year the band prepares a concert for general assembly. Among its special appearances, it played before Edgar Guests' program, and also met Admiral Byrd and played for him. They sponsored the appearance of the Marquis, and played a prelude before his performance.

Dudley Miller was drum major this year. The band is composed of forty members and the personnel includes 1 flute, 1 piccolo, 2 oboes, 1 E-flat clarinet, 8 B-flat clarinets, 1 bassoon, 1 soprano saxophone, 1 alto saxophone, 1 tenor saxophone, 1 baritone saxophone, 3 cornets, 2 horns, 2 baritones, 4 trombones, 2 Sousaphones, and 3 percussions.

From the band are chosen the brass quartet, the flute, oboe, clarinet, trumpet, and trombone soloists, all of whom were representatives in the various music contests.

Choir

Margaret Ehlerman, President

The Acapella Choir is the only selective organization in the music department. It is comprised of fifty-four voices. The choir formed the nucleus of the opera which was given during the first semester. This year, the choir has become a completely organized body, and the members have made their selection for a president. With an additional committee of two, she plans all the concerts for the year.

Boys' Glee Club

This glee club is an elective course for boys, the only requisite being a musical feeling, and interest on the part of each member. It serves as preparation for membership into the choir.

Girls' Glee Club

Mrs. Wilson, Director

Likewise, the girls' glee club is an entirely elective course. It has proved so popular among the girls, that Mr. Iverson has found it necessary to organize two groups, each consisting of over forty voices.

As the boys' glee club, this organization serves to develop voices so they may be accepted for the choir. However, anyone who enjoys music, or is at all musically inclined, is qualified for membership into the glee club.

Brass Quartet

The brass quartet consists of: Chester Peterson, Grayson Sloan, Julian Serrill, and Byron Foster. This group placed first in the sub-district contest at LeMars and in the district contest at Ida Grove.

Male Quartet

The following boys comprise this group: Ernest Tamminga, Bob Nelson, Carl Gleysteen, and Kennett Melgaard. They won first in the sub-district contest.

Tamminga Nelson Gleysteen Melgaard

Littlejohn Pill Taylor Wolfe

String Quartet

The members are: Charles Littlejohn, Gisella Pill, Mable Taylor, and Herman Wolfe. This group was successful in the sub-district and district contests, taking first place in both.

Girls' Quartet

The girls' quartet is a new group this year. Those who made up this organization are: Margaret Morgan, Gretchen Gall, June Beverly, and Jane Schott. Their honor was first place in the sub-district contest.

Morgan Gall Beverly Schott

Tamminga, Schott, Gall, Melgaard

Mixed Quartet

Two members of each of the boys' and girls' quartet comprise this group. Those chosen were: Ernest Tamminga, Jane Schott, Gretchen Gall, and Kennett Melgaard. They placed first in the sub-district, and in the district tournament.

Music Tournament

This year, the music department possessed five quartets, which is the largest number that has ever been organized at one time in Central. This quartet work serves as a higher type of training than is possible in larger ensembles.

In the sub-district contest which was held at LeMars this year, Central entered eighteen different events, a variety which surpassed that of any former year. Of this group, fourteen were awarded first place, three received second place, and one placed third. Those who won first places are: Vernon McCaslin, oboe; Verner Herman, clarinet; Byron Foster, trombone; Dudley Miller, viola; Gisella Pill, 'cello; Marjorie Palmquist, piano; Margaret Ehlerman, soprano; Doris Wiegand, contralto; Merlyn Behmer, tenor, and the five quartets. The three who placed second were: Grayson Sloan, trumpet; Charles Littlejohn, violin, and Roger Polly, baritone. Charles Wetmore, playing the flute, took third place honor.

These fourteen entries were entitled to enter the district tournament which met at Ida Grove. In this meet, Central received eight first places, four second places, and two third place honors. Among the first honor winners were: the brass, string, and mixed quartets, the oboe, trombone, viola, 'cello, and tenor solos.

The Music Department then sent these eight entries to Iowa City where they participated in the Iowa state tournament. However, in this contest, Central was awarded only one first place, and this honor was brought back by Merlyn Behmer, tenor. Although the rest of Central's entries did not receive first awards, the majority of them placed, which is an honor in itself.

Several times during the semester, these musical representatives presented programs in the general assemblies, for the entertainment of fellow students. They also offer various selections before organizations of this city. With the choir, they have entertained in many churches and before several luncheon clubs.

The first act took place at the sign of the Red Mill. Jan Van Borkem, Burgomaster of Katwykann-Zee, was trying to force his daughter to marry the Governor of Zeeland, but she loved Captain Doris Van Damm. The second act was portrayed in a ball in the Burgomaster's house, where Gretchen's marriage to the Governor was to have taken place. The Burgomaster, bewildered by the disappearance of his daughter, sent for Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson. The Governor arrived and Bertha agreed to marry him just as Captain Doris and Gretchen appeared together.

The Chrestomathian Literary Society is the newest boys' literary society. Since their first organization, the Chrestos have always possessed a high scholastic standing, and have been represented in nearly every important movement that Central has sponsored. It is noted especially for having excellent debaters. This year it won the inter-club debates and also the inter-club basketball tournament.

They hold their meetings in the regular club room which they share with their sister club, the Erodelphians. Current events are regular topics for discussion, and these help comprise the weekly program in addition to the various debates, talks, musical numbers, and original features which are scheduled for the entertainment of the club members and their guests.

A few years after the organization of the Chrestos, the Erodelphian Literary Society came into existence as a sister club. Although it is the youngest of the literary societies, it has rapidly come into prominence in all inter-club activities. The regular meetings are held every Friday in the Delph-Chresto club rooms. A social period to which guests are invited usually precedes the business meetings. The program is usually prepared chiefly for the entertainment of the members and their guests, but the literary topics, called "Petite Pathe", are presented at each meeting by various members. Guests are always excluded from the business meetings. Election of officers are held three times a year, while the election of new members takes place two times a semester.

The Civics Society, organized in 1890, is the oldest literary society at Central High. Its ideals are: democracy, loyalty, friendship. It has always possessed outstanding students, so has come out on top often in the inter-club activities.

They always partake in the inter-club debates, basketball, baseball, golf, hockey, and tennis tournaments. The members of Civics, commonly referred to as the Kee-Y's, hold their weekly meetings in the Philo-Civics club room on Friday evenings, as their sister society occupies the room immediately after school. They, too, invite guests to their programs which precede the regular business meetings. Their programs vary to some extent, including debates, skits, musical numbers, and other forms of entertainment.

Each year, with their sister club, they present an informal dance to which members of all the other literary societies are invited.

As a sister club to the Kee-Y's, the Philomathian Literary Society was organized in 1892. The first members chose for their ideals: love, hope, honor, and happiness. These ideals represent the leaves of the Philo fourleaf clover, the emblem of the club, and all the members of Philo have tried to uphold them at all times. They hold their weekly meetings on Friday at 3 o'clock, but only five meetings during the semester are open for guests. They share their club room with the Kee-Y's. A short social period in which various types of programs are presented precedes the regular business meeting of the organizations. The Philos are extremely active in inter-club tournaments and are always successful in some phase of the contests.

With their brother club, they partake in various forms of entertainment during the year.

The second boys' literary club to be organized became known as the Elites. This society has always been recognized for its peppy boys, and is especially known for its representative members. Its first meeting was held in the year 1892, and since that time it has grown in number as well as in accomplishments. The Elites partake in all inter-club activities and very often emerge as winners. Their regular meetings are held Friday nights in the Hep-Elite club room. The open-door programs are presented before the business meetings, in which only members are included. Their programs vary according to the occasion, and although literary discussions are held to some extent, entertainment for the members and their guests is the uppermost consideration.

With their sister club, the Hesperians, the Elites present an informal dance for the other literary societies annually.

The Hesperian Literary Society came into existence in the year 1893, as a sister society for the Elites. Each year, their popularity increases more and more. They send representatives to inter-club tournaments, who always prove to be worthy contestants. Every Friday, at three o'clock, the Heps have an open-door program which is carefully planned by the vice president of the organization. This is followed by a business meeting for members only. The election of officers occurs three times a year, while the election of new members is held twice a semester. All those who take any commercial subject whatever, are qualified to become members of this group. This year, the membership has become over two hundred in number. Election of officers are held once a semester. Individuals from each commercial room are chosen by the students to represent the class in the business meetings of the club. These meetings are held the first and third Thursday of each month. However, all members are entitled to attend the party which the Castle Commercial Club presents each semester.

This club serves to interest pupils in the commercial course, or in any of the various business training subjects. It sponsors the different typewriting and shorthand contests which may be held at Central, and sees that individuals are chosen to represent this school in tournaments to which they are entitled to attend.

Inner Circle is the governing body of the Friendship Club. It consists of twenty girls, fifteen from the three girls' literary societies and five non-club members. These girls are elected once each year by all the girls of the school, while the vacancies occurring the year are filled by the club representatives.

The organization meets once a week to plan the monthly Friendship Frolics and the other activities. The biggest activity undertaken during the year is the Annual May Banquet. The members of Inner Circle take charge of all the details of this event and make many of the decorations themselves.

Several social gatherings are enjoyed by the members during the course of the year, and though there is a great deal of work connected with this organization, every Inner Circle girl considers it a great honor and privilege to be a member.

The Friendship Club is an organization to which every girl automatically belongs as soon as she enters Central High. The club serves to instigate a greater feeling of intimacy among the girls by bringing them together, and giving them a common interest. The regular meetings occur monthly.

Twist Club

Miss Moser, Adviser

Only those girls who are taking the Normal Training Course are qualified to become members of this organization. It serves to develop a deeper interest for the educational type of work on the part of the pupil. The meetings are held every two weeks on Tuesday.

The club came into existence in 1919. Their motto is, "There's worth in small things", and from this motto was chosen the name of the club, "Twist". The club colors are white and gold, and the daisy was chosen as the club flower.

Bottom Row—Zifkin, Samoe, Woddedo, Greenberg, Wigodsky, Miller

Castle Kamera Club

R. D. Hissong, Adviser

The Kastle Kamera Klub is a new organization, but it has already made a great deal of accomplishment. Every Tuesday and Friday it holds regular meetings. On Fridays, programs are presented, but on Tuesdays, the time is devoted chiefly to laboratory work. Its members learn the skill of taking, developing, and finishing pictures. The club has its own equipment which makes this possible.

Art Club

Miss White, Adviser

This is the first semester of the existence of the Art Club. Those interested in art and taking this subject in regular school work may become members. Already, a great deal of enthusiasm has been shown in this direction, since the membership already has reached the number of twenty-five, and each member is striving to make the organization a success. Because many of the members are musically inclined, they intend to form an orchestra within the club.

Top Row—Schiet-elt, Vandever, Roberts, Pelletier, Glider.
Second Row—Prochazka, Kitterman, Porter, Gallagher, Miss White, Eubank
Bottom Row—Franklin, Anderson, Thallas, Knightlinger, Russell, Walden, Nelson

Second Row—Marousek, Miss Franchere, Rosenstock, Schott, Ahmann, Taft, Edmund, Wigodsky, Authier, Van Auken
Third Row—L. Orr, Horwitts, L. Flynn, VanOosbree, Ehlerman, McFadden, Obeslo, Chello, Snyder, D. Flynn, Hatfield
Fourth Row—Ehlers, Gilliland, Pelton, Myers, K. Orr, Gaynor, Smith, Hatch
Bottom Row—Serrill, Bryant, Miner, Polly, Volin, VanDyke, Rocklin, Chesler, Goldstein, Bernard

French Club

Miss Franchere, Adviser

"Le Cercle Francaise" serves to provide an opportunity where its members may converse in French, and learn to speak more fluently. The club flower is the fleur de lis. Only those taking French 3 or 4 are entitled to become members. Meetings are held every other Tuesday at three o'clock. Election of officers is held once a semester.

German Club---"Deutsch Club"

Miss Wellhausen, Adviser

The German Club is the second of the language clubs which Central possesses. To be eligible, a student must take German 3 or 4. If a first year German student is on the honor roll, however, he is qualified to become a member. The club has for its purpose, the providing of an opportune time in which students may practice the speaking of this language, as all meetings are conducted in German.

Top Row—VanOosbree, Nelson, Miller, Ehlerman, Miss Wellhausen
Second Row—Davis, Gleissman, Guelff, McIntyre, Schindler
Bottom Row—Barricks, Gelfand, Brandt, Rumsch, Mirowitz, Miller

Top Row—Ridwell, Nickle, Jepson, Chapman, Baron, Sloan, Shea, Gelfand, Walish, Soelberg
Second Row—Butler, Sloan, Abraham, White, Davidson, Arndt, Stebner, Miss Hoff
Third Row—Erickson, Yaco, Leonard, Ammann, Spurlock, Clark, Katras
Fourth Row—Olmore, Guerras, Gallagher, Martin, Herring, Hyndman, White, Malloy
Bottom Row—Skaff, Schuck, Lindlow, Lambert, Hagen, McVey, Gasser, Zaffiras, Shindler

El Aguila

Miss Hoff, Adviser

The Spanish Club was the first language club to be organized in the high school. The first members chose as the official name for this group, "El Aguila". Because of the great number of pupils who wished to belong to this club, a second group was organized this semester, and names were decided upon to distinguish the two.

The members convene every two weeks on Friday, and a program precedes the business meeting. Both are conducted entirely in Spanish.

Each spring, the members plan a picnic to which all look forward.

Top Row—Burch, Ginsberg, Epstein, Rozofsky, Butler
Second Row—Reeves, Lasensky, Penrod, Carrier, Corkhill, Melgaard
Bottom Row—Greenberg, Snow, Edmond, Johnson, Plotkin, Hurwitz, Slutsky

Top Row—Hyman, Butler, Hanson, McClintock, Miller, Serrill
Second Row—Duncan, Hedburg, Sloan, Raven, Erickson, Swanson, Heglan

Hi-Y

Mr. Belknap, Adviser

Hi-Y is a club to which every boy in school may become a member. It is a companion club to Hi-Tri, the Girl Reserves. Meetings take place every Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A.

The aim of the club is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the high school and community, high standards of Christian character, clean scholarship, clean sportsmanship, and clean living."

Glider Club

H. R. Jacobi, Adviser

The Glider Club is the only club of its kind at Central. The boys meet every Friday in Mr. Jacobi's room, and once a month an outside meeting is held.

The chief purpose of the organization is to provide an opportunity for the boys to study the technical side of aviation and to learn how to fly gliders.

Mr. Jacobi, Shea, Kline, Bidwell, Morell, Benjamin, Patch, Pence, Johnson, Pence

Top Row—Flynn, Obeslo, Dierking, Yee, Meyers, Ostapoff, Miss Engle, Russell, H. Bliss, Olson
Second Row—Erickson, E. Bliss, Patrick, D. Pelton, Pazawich, Z. Chello, Gallagher
Third Row—V. Chello, Amundson, Johnson, Bruce, Gliessman, Hall, Sweely
Fourth Row—Bunnington, Swearington, Eberly, Polvson, Williams, Breckenbaumer, Wendzillo, Matthews
Bottom Row—Chase, Nelson, Ginsberg, H. Pelton, Dinkel, Caine, Gearas, Anderson, Mitchell

Hi-Tri

Miss Engle, Adviser

Hi-Tri has proved to be very worthwhile and interesting to its members. It is, in reality, a Girl Reserves organization for girls of high school age. Each meeting is alternated by a general gathering, and then a sport group. Practical, as well as entertaining, programs are provided, and the girls partake of various social events during the year. At the sport meeting, the girls devote their time to swimming, basketball, and other popular activities.

Emanon Club

Miss Radschlag, Miss Rhode, Advisers

The Emanon Club is another of the new organizations at Central, and it has quickly become very popular. It was formed chiefly for students taking the Retail Selling Course, the only requisites for membership being satisfactory grades. Those having high enough grades are voted upon, and thus pupils become members.

Top Row—Bos, Koser, Williams, Osnowitz, Erickson, Bielfeld, Herzoff
Second Row—Miss Rohde, Gustafson, Riffle, Nelson, Durst, Jacobson, Miss Radschlag, Saitlin
Third Row—Liston, Krane, Harvey, Oliphant, Sasse, Pope, Kearns
Bottom Row—Wilen, Woolf, Ford, Schminkey, Scurlock, Abel, Alvarado, Yandrich

BY GONE DATES

September 2-3-4—Registration. Old remodeled school is somewhat of a solace. We can hardly recognize the old place.
September 8—Everyone eagerly hastens to school for the first day, including the bewildered sophomores. Pop gives his Semi-annual Speech in Assembly.
September 9—A vacation so soon! We get the afternoon off for the Legion parade. Everyone feels pretty peppy. I wonder why.
September 12—All literary clubs hold their first meeting of the semester.
September 16—The second bank day of the semester, and room 301 reaches a percentage of 91, the highest in several years. Mr .Arnold offers congratulations.
September 18—Assembly, because of Constitution Week. Pop announces that the enrollment number has reached 1700.
September 19—The first Record! The "Scotch" students of the school looking on with the rest.
September 22—All "femmes" are assailed by the Inner Circle girls selling Friendship tags, and everyone in general is commanded to buy a season football ticket.
September 23—Jane Wernli decides it was a cursed day for her when she went to Paris, because Miss Franchere is always "n-est-ce pas?"-ing her.
September 25—Big Friendship Frolic held in new gym. A good crowd of girls attended.
September 26—Successful Pep Assembly with the introduction of our snappy yell quartet.
September 27—Our first football game of this season played at LeMars. Final score: 21-21.

September 29—Hi-Tri holds a kid party in room 422 for the new girls. They raise the roof in their own sweet way.
September 30—Room 301 banks 100 per cent. Hooray!
October 1—We are beseiged by the Inner Circle girls, selling Central Hi banners. Pretty soon they'll make first class saleswomen.
October 4—Elaine Andrews brings forth the startling proclamation: "Everybody thinks I'm a goody-goody girl, but I'm not!"
October 7—Fire drill. All Centralites "rush" from the building!
October 8—The six weeks tests are being sprung. Oh, the unjustness of it all.
October 9—"Abie" Epstein adds to his notoriety by making the weaker sex feel faint at the sight of his "little white mouse."
October 10—Pep Assembly—Ow! I'm a little hoarse.
October 11—The football team gets the bitter dose of medicine from Fort Dodge. Those "Hirams" beat us 18-0.
October 14—Another snappy fire drill! All those who thought they would be June or summer grads were summoned to the Aud. O, what a bunch of optimists!
October 15—"Mardi" Mulhall just won't leave Lucille alone. As a result, Lou spends an English class in the Aud.
October 16—With all those handsome teachers and good-looking "teacherettes" running around the halls, who can be expected to study?
Anyway, we had an A-1 Pep Assembly.
October 17—The teachers work for awhile, and the pupils enjoy themselves during the convention here. Our team took the Tee Jays down a couple of notches by beating them 13-0. Hooray for our side!

October 20—We all carry home our report cards, the most dreaded and most welcome piece of literature at Central. (Maybe?)

October 21—Miss Hill of Thrift, Inc., talks to various classes on the value of the school banking system. Most of us think the system is pretty hot considering the many pennies we bank.

October 22—The sophs are still having knowledge pounded into their heads as the library is yet at their disposal and at theirs only. We hope they'll make as intelligent seniors someday as we are at present.

October 23—Club elections. Every club member displays a great deal of their hidden temperament.

October 24—The team holds on to their high standing by beating Grant High of Cedar Rapids. Now on with the East High game, says we.

October 27—Abie Epstein tells of plans for a cooking class for various football boys next fall. They must intend "to keep the home fires burning." Isn't it delicious?

October 28—The speaker in assembly with his "enlightening subject" is the object of much discussion.

October 30—Mildred Ahmann takes a none too graceful flop on her way to lunch today. Good-bye stockings.

October 30—Johnnie Lawson's next move is to bombard girls with paper wads. "Not werry gentlemanly," I'd say.

Vice President—Dick Anthens (the little dickens).
Secretary—Catherine Elfrink (Ray for the Photo Editor).
Treasurer—Charles Bidwell (we hope he can be trusted).
Even our second team can beat East's seconds. And they did! 6-0. Philo-Kee-Y Informal.

November 10—Big pep gathering at Gilman Terrace. Just the beginning of our conquest!

November 11—The biggest and most wonderfully played game of the season. Our team simply scorched the suburbanites by beating them 19-7.

Capitalizing Education . . . . .

In the gradual change of the times, a tendency has developed to spend money too freely.

Greater facilities for learning have helped to make keener minds; and with the proper kind of advice and encouragement, this tendency to be careless in money matters can be changed to one of great good.

The officers of THE TOY NATIONAL BANK are always glad to plan with young folks and they should always feel free to come in with their problems.

January 9—Hep-Elite Informal. Gladys Ehlerman hears that it will be as an Ice Carnival and wants to know if they are to use roller skates because she knows they can't use ice skates. Basketball game at Wayne. They win 26-23. O, heck!

January 10—Another basketball game is staged. This time Abe Lincoln High of Council Bluffs takes their spite out on us. Score: 16-14, in their favor. As additional attraction, a boxing match is held. Exciting?

January 12—Wot a week! All they say at Central now is "Gimme, gimme." Class dues, annual subscriptions, Honor Society banquet tickets, club dues, etc., etc.

January 13—The Centralite debaters can out-argue everyone. They win both debates with Cathedral High School, here at home.

Everything for Every Game
in Every Season

February 18—The debaters win the decision on both debates over LeMars. Soon we can say "Central High Debate Team—the unconquerables!"

February 20—East High-Central game. The most exciting game of the season. East gets away with one more point than Central—but to see the game was almost a compensation.

February 26—Another Friendship Frolic. The girls enjoy a delightful program and then dance to the tune of "crooning melodies."

February 27—The B. B. team gets Hawarden happily, but comes home happier—with a score of 38 to the little burg's 26.

March 2—Mr. L. W. Feik becomes Sioux City's new superintendent. Long may he reign!

March 5—Central beat Hawarden 53-27 in the sectional B .B. tournament. Now on with the suburbanites.

March 6—The sectional tournament still rages. East beat Central 20 to 13! It's a bitter dose to swallow, but we'll say it's luck and let it go at that.

March 9—Spring football practice starts! No people are killed, and each one comes out with all his arms and legs.

March 10—Verstegen's stage a party for the Annual Board, and afterwards the staff learns the whats and wheres of printing, i. e. we gain knowledge.

March 11—Marj. Palmquist, roaming the halls seventh period, calmly turns in a fire alarm and looks on, while everyone "tears madly" out of the building.

March 12—Chrestos beat the Kee-Y's in the first of the inter-club basketball games. 15-14.

March 13—Clubs have election of officers. Betty Aalfs and Dorothy Rasmussen, Kenny Nickle and Jimmy Bolks become presidents of Philo, Hep, Elite, and Kee-Y's, respectively. Chrestos have another victory. This time over the brawny Elites. Score: 23-22.

March 16—Elites and Kee-Y's combat this time. The score is 39-8 in favor of the bally ol' Kee-Y's.

March 17—The debate team beat Hawarden's arguers in an encounter. But then, what can you expect?

March 19—Denece Darling comes to school with a stiff neck. I always did think her laugh would bring on some complication.

March 24—Arnold Baron assists Marquis, the Magician, on the stage. Wonder if he learned anything.

March 30—Warren Butler will suffer a serious break-down from overtaxing of the brain, as shown by his never ceasing labor. He is seen with a book today.

April 1—Mr. Racker is all "het up" now. He pulled an April Fool joke on Denece Darling and she fell for it.

April 3-6—Another vacation—Heck!

April 9—C. C. C. has its semi-annual party. Future stenogs and bookkeepers raise a little bit of cain.

April 10—Louise Orr, Howard Barth, and Warren Butler are perceived riding around town—at a late hour. Louise just won't be satisfied with one.

April 15—Now it's a canvass for graduation announcement orders. Just one of the last resorts for getting rid of surplus money.

April 18—A bunch of girls go to Hawarden for the Typing and Shorthand Contests. They struck some wrong keys, but they hit the good eating joints O. K.

Where Youth and Style Meet

April 21—Class Play try-outs. Those capable of superb acting, and otherwise, were present. (Mostly otherwise).

April 22—Denece Darling works on the Annual after supper, and when leaving, instead of going as a lady should, she climbs out the window. One would think she was attempting suicide if one saw her fall.

April 24—Hobo Day. Many reveal their inner-selves.

May 1—Club elections and then another one of those exciting joints. The dance keeps on until 10 o'clock. My! What is this generation coming to?

May 2—The May Banquet, the biggest event of the season. The boys surely miss a treat when Julie walks up the aisle.

May 5—Music Cantata at East. Yes, a few Centralites will condescend to perform there.

May 6—East-Central track meet. No matter what kind of tournament, those foes always fight a thrilling battle.

May 8—Delph-Chresto Informal.

May 7-8—State Music Contest at Iowa City. Here's to Central!

May 9—District track meet at Cherokee. Not all of the members on the team are "cracked," so some of 'em are allowed to leave safely.

May 16—State track meet at Ames.

May 31—Baccalaureate services. The time is drawing nigh unto a finish. The Seniors are beginning to feel a little weepy. (Do I hear some one say, "Oh, Yeah"?)

June 2-3—The Class Play is presented. Bet everyone goes home lisping.

June 4—Commencement—to some, but a relief to others. It is hard to leave old memories.

With the close of this year, Central High promises greater advancement. But in the future, will further additions be constructed to the "Castle", or will new high schools be erected? Only time will reveal eventual developments.
